The First Annual Reunion of the descendants of Lewis and Elizabeth Rinehart, who crossed the plains to Oregon in 1854, was held July 14, 15, and 16, 1903. It was held on the James H. Rinehart 'Old Homestead' two miles west of Summerville, Oregon. Most of the family came.

Since that first reunion in 1903, 105 Rinehart Family Reunions have come and gone. Although we missed reunions during the war years of 1942, 43, 44, 45 and the year 1956—the Rinehart Reunion is now one of longest-running family reunions in America. It is a tradition of which we should be proud.

Back by popular demand, it is our honor and privilege to extend you an invitation to the 110th Rinehart Family Reunion, which will be held at Ross Point Conference Center in Post Falls, ID. The Ross Point Conference Center is conveniently located on 60 wooded acres along the Spokane River, an easy one mile drive south of Interstate 90, exit 7, in Post Falls, ID. Lodging includes motel style lodging, cabins, RV sites and tent areas. We will gather for meals at the dining hall and enjoy many indoor and outdoor activities to cherished memories to share for years to come.

We will be skipping the lunch meal. Instead, we will be doing a brunch, an afternoon snack and a very nice dinner. All meals are family style meals. No buffet meals except for salad bar and breakfast cereal counter. Let us know if anyone has any special dietary needs.

Ross Point offers Softball, Swimming, Boulder Climbing Wall, Beach Volleyball, Canoeing, Campfire, Miniature Golf, Horseshoes, Basketball, Kayaks, Aqua-Jump with Slide, Blob & Log Rolling, Indoor Volleyball, Indoor Basketball, Tetherball, Two Carpet Ball Tables, Swings, Ping-Pong & Gaga Ball. Additional activities requiring advanced registration and an additional fee: High-Ropes Course and Climbing Tower. (Both require 3 weeks advanced notice).

We will be adding other organized activities like Water Balloon Volleyball, Blind Canoe race, Annual Softball Game, Carpet Ball Tournament, Scavenger Hunt, 'Human Hungry, Hungry Hippos', Colored water balloon fight (might want to bring a white tee-shirt for this one), possibly 'Human Foosball' and many more. Our main focus for this reunion is activities for the kids, so bring them and have fun with them!
