Birth information helps us to add this precious new life to the family tree...and include them in the Celebration of Life at the reunion.

Death information helps us to record the end of a life...include them in the Celebration of Life at the reunion, and keep our mailing list up to date.

Burial information tells us where this person's stone is located... and possibly where they lived.

Father and Mother information helps us locate this person in the family tree...or identify spouse families.

Occupation information helps us to appreciate this person's contribution to society, an important part of their life story.

Hobby information helps us to appreciate this person's special interests...another important part of their life story.

Thank you very much for your help with the Pinehart Records!

Gratefully, Cousin Lois
